- Advisors
- Consultants

Dean L. Boebinger, CFP®, has been awarded a five-star quality rating by Paladin Registry after a comprehensive review of his credentials, ethics, business practices, and financial services. Only 7% of the advisors in the financial services industry achieve the Registry's highest quality rating.

Paladin Registry is an independent information services company that evaluates and rates the qualification of financial advisors and planners. Paladin issues one-to five-star ratings based on a comprehensive review of the advisor's credentials, ethics, business practices, and financial services. These four categories of advisor characteristics have the greatest impact on their ability to deliver competent, ethical advice and quality services.
